

Praia do Forte Real Estate Guide

Praia do Forte in Bahia; a serene fishing town about an hour's drive from the capital city Salvador offers the tranquillity one can expect from a tropical paradise but also the financial security to be expected from a bustling tourist destination.

There is an abundance of real estate yet to be had in this virgin paradise. Even though fishing is their major industry you would not know it upon first visiting. In fact, until you get nearer to the practically virgin beach and see the many boats gently sitting on the water you would be hard pressed to guess the town's primary business.

Personal Or Business

Praia do Forte is the perfect place for families and business entrepreneurs. For families the town offers the benefits of a beautiful vacation haven but also all the outdoor activities a family may desire, as well as very affordable living.

For the business entrepreneurs there is plenty opportunity for fast returns from investments as more and more tourists return over and over for their piece of paradise discovered.

Praia do Forte is exceptional because it is in fact a paradise tucked out of sight by nature with beaches that are plainly unspoiled.

Residents

Although the town is home to many nationalities such as Bahian's, French, Portuguese, Italians etc. many of the residents live elsewhere in near by towns. Some of the towns residents are Holiday home owners who return every few months to enjoy rest and relaxation. Native Bahians who own business remain in the town year round.

A Growing Attraction

With its active business trade and increased influx of tourists the town has steadily grown in prosperity. This is due primarily to the increased tourism as well as the enlarged interest in Praia do Forte real estate. Despite the fact that this is still a developing town it has seen a solid boost to its economy overall as well as its population.

The steady growth in the town has increased the real estate market. Investors and individuals alike can still easily find that special property that they are looking for. Even though property sales have grown progressively and prices are beginning to climb there are still quite a number of yet to be discovered properties available for individuals and investors alike.

Real Estate Options

No matter if you want a vacation villa, hut, condo, family home with pool or even a Hotel you can find them along the beaches of Praia do Forte. Additionally there are remote Islands with no vehicles but plenty of houses and hotels. Properties to be had in the town range in price from $35,000 to over $450,000.
